BEN FRANKLIN'S DAY.
2,000,000 PRAYERS.
EARTH'S OZONE BLANKET.
A BUSY BIRTHDAY.

By Arthur Brisbane
(Copyright 1929, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

HERE is good advice for youth or old age:

"Don't thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that is the stuff life is made of."

More good advice is this:

"He that goes a borrowing, goes a sorrowing."

And for a nation in which 90 old men out of a hundred die "worth less than $100, this is valuable:

"A man may, if he knows how to save as he gets, keep his nose to the grindstone."

Those wise things were said by Benjamin Franklin, born 224 years ago today.

There is material for a thousand good sermons in Franklin's common-sense talks. Perhaps some will be preached next Sunday.

It may comfort Protestants, Hebrews, Mohammedans, Confucians and Buddhists to know that next Saturday 2,000,000 good Catholics will pray for their conversion to the Catholic faith.

Following the recent important statement by the pope to the effect that Protestants are turning toward the Catholic church, Cardinal Hayes of the New York diocese has instructed congregations in 444 churches under his control to begin next Saturday an eight-day period of prayer, fasting and penance for the return of Anglicans and other protestants, originally a part of the Catholic church, into the Catholic fold, and that all others of whatever race or religion may brace catholicism.

Increase in the number of converts to Catholicism will enable observers to form valuable estimates of the immediate effect of prayer on a great scale.

The widespread effect of conversion should offend nobody. Conversion will not occur unless it is God's will that it should occur. And no one can object to that.

Scientists of Smithsonian institution hope to learn about magnetic disturbances and weather phenomena generally by studying the earth's "ozone blanket."

That "blanket" is a thin layer of superior atmosphere, 30 miles above the earth's surface.

By measuring the thickness and contents of the earth's ozone blanket, it may be possible to tell what is happening on the sun, 93,000,000 miles away.

It might be possible also later to bring down some of that ozone with its wonderful qualities for the improvement of the lungs and blood.

Future advertisements may read: "Ozone fresh from the ozone blanket every day."

CITY OFFICIALS ADDRESS CLUB

Mayor, Council President Speakers at Kiwanis Meeting Thursday

Mayor John M. Davidson and President of Council George P. Koontz were speakers at the meeting of the Salem Kiwanis club at the Memorial building Thursday afternoon.

Officials made short talks, aside from co-operation of the club and all residents of the city in general in all municipal work.

The meeting was in charge of a committee composed of E. H. Allhouse and Fred K. Schuller. Allhouse acted as chairman and introduced the speakers.

S. N. VanBlaricom, member of the Perry township board of education, was present at the meeting and extended an invitation to the club to attend the Salem farmers' institute which will be held at the Memorial building next week.

Short discussions were held on the city limit extension hearing held at Lisbon, Wednesday afternoon. Resume of the hearing was presented by J. R. Stratton, chairman of the public affairs committee.

Invitations to attend the revival meetings to be held at the Baptist church during the next two weeks starting Monday, were accepted by the club.

Plans for the annual Kiwanis International anniversary meeting were made. The meeting will be held next Wednesday evening in charge of a committee composed of F. S. Barkhoff and Dr. J. F. W. Wives, friends and sweethearts of members will be guests.

AMERICANS ON NAVY MISSION ARRIVE SAFELY

Feted by City Fathers In Plymouth When Ship Anchors

DAWES PRESENT WITH GREETING

Delegates Leave Port At Once For London Meetings

BULLETIN

London, Jan. 17.—Secretary of State Stimson, unaccompanied by any of the other members of the American delegation to the five-power naval arms conference, went to 10 Downing street, the official residence of Premier MacDonald this afternoon where the two statesmen were closeted in a private conference.

Plymouth, Eng. Jan. 17.—Pledged to aid in a conference designed to bring about the most drastic naval armament cuts in the history of the world, the American delegates to the five-power parley starting in London on Tuesday arrived here today aboard the United States liner, George Washington.

After a brief, but imposing welcome ceremony staged by the city fathers of Plymouth, the delegation, headed by Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson, departed for London aboard a special Pullman train of the Great Western railway.

The George Washington, after bucking a terrific gale that reached 80-mile an hour proportions during the latter stages of the journey, had anchored in the outer harbor of Plymouth at 1 a. m. Salem time.

Soon after the vessel dropped anchor, a tender arrived from Plymouth and took the entire delegation, including advisers, technicians, secretaries and stenographers, aboard.

The tender arrived at the dock at 8:15. Gen. Charles Gates Dawes, American ambassador to Great Britain, and Hugh Gibson, ambassador to Switzerland, were on hand to welcome Secretary Stimson and his aides.

The sun was just breaking through the English morning haze when the little tender, bearing its imposing group of delegates, pulled into the wharf.

SHETLER HEADS STARK ELECTRIC

Company Reports Indicate Earnings for Past Twelve Months

Alliance, Jan. 17.—Atty. Curtis M. Shetler of Canton, former city solicitor of Alliance, was elected president of the Stark Electric Railroad company at the annual meeting of the company.

Everett W. Sweeney, elected vice president; C. E. Perow, vice president and general manager; O. K. Ayers, treasurer and assistant general manager and W. H. Grimes secretary and auditor.

Directors for the ensuing year are E. W. Sweeney, C. E. Perow, C. M. Shetler, O. K. Ayers, Alex. Robertson, R. D. Miller, H. F. Crowe and W. H. Grimes.

The consolidated report for the Stark Electric and the Alliance Power company shows a net profit of $29,694.94, an increase of $23,030.09 over the 1928 report.

Receipts last year were $596,461.04. Operating expenses were $364,977.45, while taxes, depreciation and fixed charges, including the interest on bonds, totaled the total cost to $335,786.50.

Passenger traffic on Stark cars last year was 3,210,000 compared with 2,532,000 for 1928, an increase of 278,000. Cars traveled a total of 1,357,500 miles last year compared with 1,294,500 miles in 1928.

New rules and regulations adopted, change the stockholders' meeting date from January to the first Monday in April. This will bring the Stark Electric meeting the same date as that of the Alliance Power company.

Merle C. Miller Will Head Sunday School

Merle C. Miller has been elected superintendent of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church and at the annual business meeting of the school this week his assistant officers were selected.

Arthur R. Talbot and Howard Folts are assistant superintendents. Other officers are: Secretary, Ruth Cosgrove; treasurer, R. P. Vickers; missionary secretary, Ada Lottman; chorister, Ralph B. Snyder; pianist, Mrs. Ralph Snyder; cradle roll superintendent, Miss Alta Whinnery; home department superintendent, Mrs. H. B. Morris.

Four new teachers were voted in as members of the cabinet. They are: David Bevan, George Talbot, Miss Marjorie Dressel, Miss Irene Miller. Mr. Butler and Miss Ruth Oiler are assistant teachers.

Queen

MISS PAULINE COX of Gurdon, Ark., a sophomore at Henderson State Teachers' College at Arkadelphia, has been chosen queen of South Arkansas and will preside for 1930. She will be crowned January 24 at the annual convention of the South Arkansas Chamber of Commerce by Governor Parnell of Arkansas.

NEW METHOD OF BORDER PATROL EXPECTED SOON

Land Force Like Marines To Take Part In Guard Duty

Washington, Jan. 17.—Prohibitions second decade started today with the government preparing to place a military arm of the United States in the front-line trenches of enforcement.

The treasury was preparing to organize a little sister to the Marine corps to guard the borders against smugglers, for that is substantially what the militarized border patrol will become, operating as it will, provided congress passes the necessary legislation, as the land force of the coast guard.

This military unit will bear the same relation to the coast guard as does the famous fighting Marines to the navy.

The prohibition business was a bigger job than the first commissioner, John Kramer, or anybody else, thought on January 17, 1929. On that day the government started after the bootleggers with 1,000 men, hopeful of cooperation from all the states, counties and cities.

On that day Commissioner Kramer issued a statement declaring that "we plan quick and drastic measures to make the law effective."

An official at the treasury said that since the border patrol, deployed from Maine to Washington and from the Gulf to the Pacific, will be a land-unit, although under regulation of the sea-going coast guard, it must be of somewhat different organization.

The guard will be uniformed, but of a different type than that of the coast guard.

The size of the patrol has not been determined. At present there is a force of 2,500 men in the coast guard, customs and immigration patrol to form the nucleus of the new unit. It was thought about 5,000 men would be required for the entire 3,000 miles of border.

Hopkins Promises He Will Lift Lid

Cleveland, Jan. 17.—Pouring over the charges prepared by city council, presumably as the ones on which they based their ouster action against him, William R. Hopkins, Cleveland's suspended city manager, today promised that he will lift the lid at his hearing Tuesday and bring out the real reasons for his dismissal by the Republican majority of council.

Fighting Breaks Out In Rebel Garrison

London, Jan. 17.—Severe fighting has broken in the rebel garrison of the Cantonese navy on Hoihow island, China, according to reports from Hong Kong today.

The British ship Magnolia is en route to the scene to protect foreigners.

Elks Meeting

Salem Elks enjoyed a turkey dinner Thursday evening at the home when they had as their guest, J. C. Creamer, of Ashtabula, district deputy.

Creamer gave a talk and the lodge initiated two candidates.

BLONDE BANDIT REQUESTED FOR MURDER TRIAL

Pennsylvania Asking For Return of Woman In Shooting

CLAIM SHE KILLED TRAFFIC OFFICER

Governor Fisher Moves In Effort To Effect Extradition

Harrisburg, Jan. 17.—First steps in the hearing legal battle to bring Irene Schroeder from her Arizona Waterloo to what may prove to be her Pennsylvania Elba were taken today when Governor John S. Fisher signed requisition papers asking Governor John C. Phillips to relinquish prior claim to the blonde woman so that she may be returned to face a Pennsylvania court of justice for the killing of Corporal Brady Paul of the state highway patrol.

The requests for extradition were brought here by M. Martin Lee, Lawrence county detective, and were signed by Governor Fisher shortly before noon. The requisitions also call for the surrender of Thomas Crawford and W. Glenn Daque to Pennsylvania authorities.

Held in Arizona

Mrs. Schroeder and her two companions, believed to be Daque and Crawford, are being held in the Maricopa jail at Phoenix, Ariz. The trio was captured by a posse of deputy sheriffs and citizens, under the leadership of an Indian guide, who tracked them through the sage brush to their rendezvous in the foothills and surrounded and captured them.

Although Sheriff Charles Wright, of Phoenix, has notified state police here that the woman and her companions have refused to sign waivers of extradition proceedings, pressuring a legal battle over their return to the Keystone state, authorities here are confident that Mrs. Schroeder, Daque and Crawford soon will be enroute to Pennsylvania to face murder charges growing out of the murder of Corporal Paul.

In Arizona, Mrs. Schroeder and the men are faced with charges of abduction and wounding a deputy sheriff during their wild fight through the desert.

STATE LECTURER TO SPEAK HERE

Representative of Ohio Bureau of Education To Give Address

Dr. Lester S. Ivins, special lecturer from the state library of the Ohio State department of education, Columbus, will address a gathering of Salem people at the Memorial building at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday, January 21.

Dr. Ivins will speak on the subject "Educational Growth Through Professional Reading." He is a well known educator, author and lecturer and has been a school superintendent, was a member of the state department of education of Ohio, and a member of the United States bureau of education. Dr. Ivins was a professor at Lebanon university and professor and college administrator at Kent State college.

The lecture will be held here under the auspices of the Salem public library, and women affiliated with various clubs in the city. All women in Salem and surrounding vicinity are invited to attend the event.

Loans Will Aid In Flooded Areas

Washington, Jan. 17.—A $6,000,000 appropriation for loans to farmers and stock raisers in the flood and storm stricken areas of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia was authorized by the senate today. The measure must be approved next by the house.

The funds will be made available for loans on the purchase of seed, stock or fertilizer. A similar provision was made last year and most of the loans were repaid.

A separate appropriation of $1,600,000 was authorized to aid Alabama in restoring federal aid roads, destroyed in recent floods. To obtain the money, Alabama must raise an equal sum.

Senator Smith (D) of South Carolina, fathered the farm aid bill while Senator Heflin (D) of Alabama, had charge of the other measure.

LEVEE BREAKS FLOOD FARMS IN SOUTHLAND

200,000 Acres of Land Under Water As River Rises

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 17.—Sweeping southward to the accompaniment of freezing temperatures, swirling torrents of flood waters from the Mississippi tributaries claimed a vast new territory today.

A major break in the Big Lake, Ark., levee, flooded more than 200,000 acres of rich farm land. The break, small at first, soon widened to a 350-foot gap, and workmen abandoned an attempt to save the dyke.

The break was not unexpected. The lake, located in Mississippi county, Ark., had been a critical point for days, and after the big break, the pressure in the lake diminished considerably, decreasing the danger of more serious collapses.

Engineers said more than 20,000 cubic feet of water seeped through the crevasse each second.

Concern was centered today to the White river between Georgetown and Devils Bluff, Ark., where a number of breaks were believed to be imminent. Crews which have been working around the lock to reinforce the White river levees were augmented today by hundreds of laborers.

Crews started an attempt to raise the Jackson Bayou levee on the White River two more feet, as the structure can stand only 20 feet of water, Engineers said. Thirty-two feet of water was forecast.

Salem Business Men Visit In Millville

Salem business men and their wives were entertained at a chicken supper at the Millville community house Thursday night.

Following the supper J. R. Stratton, president of the Salem business bureau, presided over a short program, with talks by R. B. McCullough and R. W. Hawley of Salem and W. L. Holwick of Millville.

Charles Freed, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freed of Salem, entertained with readings, vocal and piano selections, accompanied by the piano by his mother.

The Millville Community club recently purchased the brick school house at Millville, and converted it into a community house. Salem merchants aided them in their campaign and the supper Thursday night was in recognition of the good will of that community toward the Salem people.

Modiste Seeks Heart Balm

"He took my measurement for an engagement ring, and promised me a trip around the world, trusted him."

That is the reason, according to Dorothy M. Modiste, that Ralph L. Knapp, wealthy linen importer, and twice a candidate for Mayor of Los Angeles, is the defendant in her suit for $100,000.

Chicago Man Speaker At Salem Independent Grocer's Meeting

Tells of Methods To Be Used by Modern Trade; Music on Program

Forty merchants throughout the Salem district, affiliated with the Independent Grocers association met for their annual district get-together meeting and banquet at the Memorial building auditorium Thursday night.

John Manilla, representing the organization's headquarters in Chicago, was the principal speaker of the occasion, following the banquet. Fred F. Bryson of Youngstown presiding over the meeting as master of ceremonies.

Vocal solos were sung by Mrs. Kenneth Fuhs, accompanied by William Liebschner, of Salem, while the IOA quartet, composed of Manilla, Mrs. J. P. Hayden, Mrs. A. W.

Glass, this city, and Max Musser of Warren offered vocal selections. Appeals for new methods of the adoption of newer methods of systemized business was sounded by Manilla in his address. He asked all merchant to study method used by larger organizations in attracting patronage to their stores and strive for progress.

"There are two systems used by grocers today in everyday business," the speaker explained. "They are classified most easily by explaining them as the old system and the new system and too many of our grocery establishments today are abiding by business methods the have long been passed by American business standards."

"The grocer is an important part in the everyday life of the public. Groups of these groceries, banded together, fill an economic need and all must strive for the purpose of serving the public in the manner which gives the best results."

Tells of Progress
He explained the progress of the Independent Grocers' association since its inception three years ago and requested the Salem group to forget petty squabbles and issued a plea that all work together, in business just as in life.

"Progress is the keynote of America today. Do what you think is best, but study it first, and be certain that it is the best thing for yourself and for all concerned. We will find opposition to every new idea but consistent working towards any ideal will result in success."

A. H. Fuhs and J. P. Hayden of Salem were in charge of the meeting.

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE REPORTED

County Raises $2,823.17 For Children's Camp This Summer

Lisbon, Jan. 17.—Sale of Christmas seals in Columbiana county, excluding East Liverpool, was $2,823.17, according to an announcement made today by George L. Lafferty, county chairman of seal sales.

Perry township, of which Salem is a part, reported $758.65. B. L. Flick is chairman of the township.

A report by townships follows: Perry township, B. L. Flick, chairman, $758.65; Yellow Creek, Miss Martha Rex, chairman, $357.55; Unity, A. A. Streng, $257.20; Center, F. C. Davis, $400; Fairfield, Dallas H. Heppburn, $397; Washington, Rev. R. Graham Keevil, $91.26; Franklin, Elvy Thompson, $15.12; Salem, C. S. Angleymer, $225; Wayne, Mrs. Bert Davis, $14.85; Butler, Mrs. William Battenhwaite, $56.84; Knox, W. W. Stroup, $90.26; Madison, Elkan and Liverpool, G. M. Eells, $104.97; Hanover and West, Howard D. Baker, $90.19; Middleton and St. Clair, J. C. Gaston, $62.25.

Funds from seal sales are used in conducting the annual health camp for undernourished children of the county.

Bright Future Visioned By Outstanding Legislators

THE DRY VIEW
Washington, Jan. 17.—The dry army in the senate today predicted another 10 years will bring better enforcement and broader observance of national prohibition. Five prominent senatorial dyes expressed this belief. Their views follow:

Senator Wesley L. Jones (R) of Wash., author of the "five and ten" law: "In my judgment, the nation will make great steps forward in adequate enforcement of prohibition and the sentiment for national temperance will be much stronger 10 years hence than it is today."

Senator Henry J. Allen (R) of Kas.: "In 10 years, there will be shown a great progress of public sentiment in favor of prohibition and by reason of that, there will be many corrections in the present difficulties that beset prohibition. As the public becomes more and more

SHERIFF STONE INVESTIGATING CHILD'S DEATH

Official States Driver May Have Violated New State Law

SALEM MAN WAS AT TRUCK'S WHEEL

Victim, 10 Years Old, Had Left School Bus At Time

Investigations conducted today by two Mahoning county deputy sheriffs into the death of Lydia Anna Shesley, 10-year-old Canfield grammar school student, are expected to result in criminal action against Frank Willard of Salem, driver of the automobile truck which struck the child and caused fatal injuries Wednesday afternoon.

Sheriff Adam Stone reported this morning that investigations into the traffic fatality have resulted in specific evidence showing that Willard failed to comply with a new state highway law regarding school buses and stated that a manslaughter charge will in all probability be filed late this afternoon.

The new law, Stone stated, states that a driver of an automobile must stop when a school bus stops and shall not proceed until such a time as the road is cleared.

The child, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shesley, residing two miles southwest of Canfield, was struck by the truck operated by Willard about 4:30 p. m. Wednesday after she had alighted from the Canfield school bus and attempted to cross the road enroute to her home.

She was brought to Salem City hospital where she died at 5:40 p. m. She sustained a crushed pelvis bone, fractured leg and other injuries.

Willard, former Salem city patrolman, is a truck driver for the Yeager Coal company and resides in this city.

PROHIBITION'S BIRTHDAY

Thursday was the tenth birthday of the Eighteenth Amendment, whose passage and ratification marked the induction of the world's most important social experiment. Because it has been so far-reaching in effect and because it regulates the gratification of selfish pleasure, there has been much adversity, slight help has been proffered to the government in its duties of enforcement, in spite of the fact that the men who conceived and enacted the law believed they were doing a thing which would help the nation—not the favored few alone, but every citizen.

Large numbers of Americans have stolidly refused to remember the disgusting incidents of the open saloon, the cruel poverty into which rum-crazed providers cast their families, the vast sums of money squandered in the attempt to satisfy uncontrollable appetites. The enemies of prohibition have drawn a curtain on history and ignored the fact that the United States was an intemperate nation. There has been selfish refusal to recognize that what may be one man's pleasure was too often ten men's poison. It has not, in short, been a cheering spectacle to observe the lack of intelligent cooperation in a movement which common sense recognizes as helpful.

Selfishness has opened the way to exaggeration of minor incidents which have occurred during the enforcement of the prohibition amendment and has made of them monstrous arguments of its opponents. Many of those in a position to speak have spoken blatantly, not for the nation but for themselves and have used the editorial "we" with reckless indiscriminination. They have, to President Hoover's phrase, spoken not "whole truths," but "half truths." Their skill has led many people astray, has diverted attention from the real issue. Their criticism has been destructive; they refuse to recognize good effects, relegating them to a position of obscurity by over-emphasis of evil.

Prohibition has not, in spite of the fact that it has been in force ten years, received a fair trial. No better proof of that is needed than the voluminous preliminary report of the Wickersham commission and the message with which President Hoover presented it to congress. The entire body of the report was composed of reasons why prohibition has faltered and anyone examining it will be thoroughly convinced that no measure could possibly succeed under such handicaps. Whether or not the "wets" will allow its recommendations to be given a fair trial remains to be seen.

Prohibition, thanks to its opponents, is far more of an issue after a decade of trial, than it was when inaugurated ten years ago. News stories of 1920 tell of frantic efforts to hoard enough liquor to tide consumers over the short "dry" spell which they saw ahead of them. They were disappointed; the experiment continued and, notwithstanding paroxysms of objection, past and present, seems destined to continue. The loquacious minority has not yet gained enough strength to over-ride the majority in possession of the truth.

The prohibition amendment will have more birthdays and they will be important. One faction is eager for its defeat; another is just as jealously preparing for an unblemished victory. The latter end is assured if the citizens of the United States demand the whole truth and make their own conclusions.

It must have been a terrible shock to some of those aboard the George Washington, which carried our delegation to the naval conference, to discover when outside the 12-mile limit, that the brewery aboard had been closed down for the eastward trip because of the presence of the delegation.

An Iowan predicts that the farmers of the future will live in big apartment-houses, which will tower at cross roads and house whole communities.

munities. In other words, American farm life will adopt a modification of the plan which has prevailed in France and some other European lands for centuries.

What Others Say

HIGHER EDUCATION BY RADIO
Secretary Wilbur of the federal department of the interior has had the good sense and the courage to throw upon a recommendation by a sub-committee of a national advisory committee on education that a radio university, with an initial endowment of $10,000,000, be established, or under the auspices of the national government.

The project is magnificent and dandiedly up to date in a technical sense. Education by radio is making headway steadily, and undoubtedly has a great future. But there are many questions—moral, political, pedagogical and administrative—to be considered and answered before any attempt is made to organize a great radio university. Local needs and ideas must be harmonized with regional and national points of view. Abuses must be anticipated and prevented.

An alternative to the grandiose proposal is the suggestion that the federal office of education create a new, small unit for research, information and experimentation with a view to the gradual development of a plan of radio education. To this no exception is likely to be taken. —Chicago News.

SOUND MIND AND BODY THE BEST HERITAGE

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
(United States Senator from New York)

Mental health means the ability to adjust one's self successfully to the demands of life. It is a state of mind and body, and it is the best heritage that one can have. It is the foundation of all success in life. It is the key to a happy and successful future. It is the secret of a long and healthy life. It is the basis of all wisdom and knowledge. It is the source of all strength and courage. It is the heart of all love and compassion. It is the soul of all beauty and grace. It is the essence of all truth and justice. It is the spirit of all hope and faith. It is the life of all joy and peace. It is the light of all knowledge and understanding. It is the fire of all passion and desire. It is the wind of all change and progress. It is the rain of all blessing and grace. It is the sun of all life and hope. It is the moon of all love and mercy. It is the stars of all glory and honor. MOTOR OFFICIAL WARNS DRIVERS

Operating Car In Next State Presents Many Problems

Due to many arrests of Ohio motorists and numerous complaints from motorists of what they believe to be unfair treatment received at the hands of Pennsylvania authorities, Albert P. Morris, manager of the Columbiana County Motor club, advises all motorists to familiarize themselves with the laws governing the operation of motor vehicles in Pennsylvania.

"Most of the arrests have been due to the fact that Ohio motorists are ignorant of the driving requirements in the neighboring state, and on account of not having a driver's license, they have been unable in most instances to show some evidence that they have a right to operate a motor vehicle in Ohio. This ignorance, however, has failed to relieve them from the situation in which they find themselves when arrested, and as a result are compelled to pay a fine assessed in the justice of the peace court," Morris stated.

Must Drive Own Car
"Any Ohio motorist who owns his own automobile, may drive legally in Pennsylvania without being disturbed, provided he carries his registration card, as the neighboring state recognizes the fact that Ohio does not require operators' licenses for owners of motor vehicles."

"On the other hand, any person employed as a paid driver by a company, and operates a truck or pleasure car, must produce a paid operator's or chauffeur's license in order to drive an automobile legally in Pennsylvania."

"Another feature of the motor code of Pennsylvania that should not be overlooked, provides that when a motorist is operating an Ohio car privately owned even though the owner of the car is an occupant at the time, he must have a registration card, showing that he owns a car of his own if he is

Sailing Vessel Survives To Drift To Safety In Scotland

St. Johns, Newfoundland, Jan. 17.—Inhabitants of St. Johns rejoiced today over receipt of news that the three-masted sailing vessel Neptune, missing for six weeks, had drifted across the Atlantic at the mercy of wind and wave to a safe landing at Tobermory, Scotland.

News of the almost unbelievable arduous journey received in a terse message from Tobermory which disclosed that the vessel and its complement of 13 men and one woman had not a paid driver in the employ of the owner.

Must Have License
"If he is a paid driver, he would then naturally have a chauffeur's license. Failure to have a registration card makes the operator liable to arrest in Pennsylvania."

Morris further suggests that it is most advisable for all automobile owners in Ohio to carry their registration card at all times whether they are driving in their own state or out. He added that a car owner can never tell what emergency might arise that would make it important to be able to establish identity as the owner of the car he is driving.

There is no disposition in Pennsylvania to impose on motorists from Ohio, who are in a position to establish their right to drive an automobile in their home state. For that reason he urges all car owners to carry their proper credentials if contemplating a trip into our neighboring state just to the east.

arrived safely at the Scottish port. The suffering those 14 helpless persons must have endured can only be conjectured. The Neptune, one of a fleet of 11 sailing vessels that put to sea from this port in the face of a roaring gale on November 29, had long been given up for lost.

The little fleet was scattered soon after it had reached open water. Six of the ships were abandoned with the loss of one life. Four of them reached port, and as days passed the conviction grew that the Neptune had foundered with loss of all aboard.

On December 12 the S. S. Cedric had reported that a bark resembling the 200-ton Neptune was sighted during the night, but ensuing days brought no further word. Fortune, however, favored the frail craft, and after six weeks of buffeting, wind and wave drove her across the dangerous north Atlantic to haven.

Toledo Hopes To Aid Unemployed

Toledo, O., Jan. 17.—Appropriation of $100,000 for the financing of work for the thousands of unemployed persons in Toledo, was made official today with the signing by Mayor William T. Jackson of legislation which was recently passed by the city council.

The fund will enable officials to provide work for the unemployed, it was announced.

MAHONING CASE GIVEN IMPETUS

Woman Intervenes When Death of Action Loomed

Cleveland, Jan. 17.—With another legal obstacle removed through the intervention of Pauline Gottlieb, a decision in the battle-scarred and buffeted Mahoning valley sanitary district case is assured, according to representatives of Day & Day, attorneys for the plaintiffs, today.

The suit was threatened with an ignominious death recently when the assentants, Arthur J. Aubrey and John A. Callan, both of Youngstown stepped out and moved that the appeal be dismissed.

Briefs for a motion of Pauline Gottlieb of Youngstown, for leave to intervene, together with notice, were on file with the Mahoning county clerk in Youngstown today. Attorneys for the plaintiffs here expressed optimism that the case will now have smooth riding to a decision.

Two questions are involved in the case. First, the constitutionality of a provision of the Ohio state constitution, and, second, the constitutionality of an act of the Ohio state legislature known as the "sanitary district act."

The case will probably be reached for oral argument in the United States Supreme court not later than March, according to attorneys here. The court has heretofore postponed its consideration of its jurisdiction of this case until the case is argued and submitted on the merits.

Today's Pattern

JUST as chic as Mother is the kiddie who goes forth in this stunning little ensemble fashioned of a print and wool. The coat has a becoming shawl collar lined with the dress fabric. Two buttoned scallops fasten the frock in front, and two side pleats create ample fullness and grace.

The coat of Design 1825 may be made of kasha, jersey, lightweight tweed or serge, in plain color, or in a mixture. The little dress and the coat lining may use a cotton or a silk print—crepe de Chine, pongee, linen, pique, gingham, etc.

May be obtained only in sizes 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 4 requires 1½ yards of 54 inch fabric for the coat and 3½ yards 39-inch fabric for dress and lining.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model. The pattern has ample and exact instructions. Yardage is given for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

But a microbe living on the face of an ordinary apple would do as much, if he rose from the surface of his apple as much as one-hundredth part of an inch.

Thirty miles is much less than one two-hundredth part of the earth's diameter.

Prohibition had an extremely busy tenth birthday, Maj. Gen. Clarence R. Edwards, commander of the Twenty-sixth (Yankee) division in the war, tells Boston in Faneuil hall, that prohibition is fomenting a new war.

Mr. Wadsworth, recently senator from New York state, defeated for re-election by the drys, tells dry Republicans that he will not take that sort of treatment lying down or sitting down either.

The next New York election will see a wet Republican ticket, which is expected to keep the dry Republicans from carrying the state.

The Tulsa Tribune, about to celebrate its tenth anniversary under the ownership of Richard Lloyd Jones, emphasizes the growth of Tulsa and Oklahoma by opening the largest newspaper plant in the state.

Easterners, with money to invest, and interested in "new territory," might well investigate Tulsa.

Other cities are interested in the fact that the Tulsa airport not only puts Tulsa on the "air map," but also pays all expenses and brings in an excellent profit.

This should encourage the building of more airports. What Tulsa can do, other cities can do.

The real ocean is the air, and no enterprising city can afford to remain inaccessible to the ships of the air.

Pity the poor parrot, now in the limelight because of his disease poitacosis, which when human beings contract it, usually kills them.

The number of deaths is small, compared with other death causes, but "poitacosis" is a long name and to be killed by germs from your own parrot is humiliating.

Many husbands, seeing their opportunity, have turned pet parrots over to the authorities to be disposed of, mercifully, sacrificing many that never had poitacosis.

Sad for parrots, but not great loss. After all, a parrot cannot say anything that you cannot say yourself, better, and its shrieking annoys the neighbors.

What many people call indigestion very often means excess acid in the stomach. The stomach nerves have been over-stimulated, and food sours. The corrective is an alkali which neutralizes acids instantly. And the best alkali known to medical science is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained the standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

One spoonful of this harmless, tasteless alkali in water will neutralize instantly many times as much acid, and the symptoms disappear at once. You will never use crude methods when once you learn the efficiency of this. Go get a small bottle to try.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drugstore.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875. Adv.

Emperor's Brother Will Marry Soon

London, Jan. 17.—Prince Takamatsu, brother of the emperor of Japan, is engaged to marry the daughter of Marquis Tokugawa, the head of one of Japan's oldest noble families, dispatches from Tokyo which were received by evening newspapers here stated today.

According to these dispatches official announcement of the betrothal has been proclaimed throughout Japan.

Heer Again Heads Franklin Democrats

Columbus, O., Jan. 17.—Fred J. Heer, former chairman of the Franklin county Democratic executive committee, was again installed as chairman of the committee today, following the dismissal of Nathan A. McCoy, who was ousted as chairman late yesterday.

McCoy was elected to succeed Heer as head of the committee in 1928.

He was ousted at a special meeting of the body yesterday, following charges that McCoy had lost public confidence through recent public statements, and that his loss of control of the executive committee greatly impaired his value of the party.

LAUNCH DRIVE FOR VETERANS

Claim Men Wounded in Battle Not Getting Just Compensation

Washington, Jan. 17.—Declaring that men wounded in actual battles of the World war are being "gold bricked" in the distribution of $900,000,000 soldiers' benefits every year, Rep. Royal Johnson (R) of South Dakota, chairman of the house veterans' committee, today opened a campaign to give them "a square deal."

Johnson's contention was backed by Maj. Gen. Frank T. Hines, director of the veterans' bureau, who testified before the committee that the soldiers' advantages over civilians in building up the present system of aid for disabled veterans.

Rep. Fitzgerald (R) of Ohio also subscribed to the declaration, announcing he favored legislation adding 10 per cent to the disability compensation of soldiers wounded in battle.

Under measures now before the committee, Johnson asserted, a veteran who lost a leg in a battle may find himself drawing $43.50 a month from the government, while a stevedore who suffered an ailment when he entered the service would get $235 a month.

"I've been impressed we are not giving the battle casualty proper treatment under the law," said Johnson. "He is getting 'gold-bricked.' There is a great attempt being made to bring everyone else under the benefits of the law who can show any service connection for any ailment."

"I'm trying to eliminate discrimination and call the attention of the country to the fact that it exists."

PROHIBITION

Prohibition law is its utter unenforceability. If we want to bring about genuine temperance, it can only be done by modification of the law so that prohibition will reach the conscience of the American people.

Senator John J. Blaine (R) of Wisconsin, who proposed repeal of the 18th amendment: "The 18th amendment will have been repealed and the nation will have adopted a program of moderation and common sense in dealing with the liquor question before another decade ends."

aware of the economic benefits of prohibition, its enforcement will become easier. As the consciences of the American people awake to the social benefits of prohibition, society will demand a spirit of obedience to the law.

Senator Robert B. Howell (R) of Neb.: "Prohibition will make great progress in the next 10 years. I realize that in the east, especially in the large cities, the eyes of the people have been blinded to progress of prohibition. In 10 years, there still will be opposition but the great majority of the people will be more impressed than ever before with prohibition and its benefits to the country."

Senator Smith W. Brookhart (R) of Iowa: "Prohibition already has reduced drinking by 75 per cent. In another 10 years, there will be an other 75 per cent reduction in drinking with prohibition stronger than ever."

Senator William E. Borah (R) of Idaho: "Nobody knows what conditions under the eighteenth amendment will be at the end of the next decade."

BOOSTS GUILFORD

Editor of The Salem News.

Last week I wrote in this column, that the junction was taken off of the Guilford park and lake project. Now however, this does not seem to be true. One can hear so many stories that it is hard to make out which is which. Meanwhile, the water in the lake is raising and giving the people a beautiful view. The doors of the highway are open, and the water flowing over the cement floor. As soon as the weather freezes up, we would like to have the people come down to Guilford and view lake at both ends. Drive along the bank and then west towards Wooddale cemetery. At my place, you can turn around and go back on the Depot rd. to Salem as at my place the road is covered with three feet of water at the present time.

It would seem to me, now, that any one has a chance to see what our county is going to have, that every one who is interested in this project, should stand together and demand from the state that this thing be finished. Instead of dallying along any longer, for some real, or perhaps, imaginary reason. It is almost nine years ago, or may be, ten, when the project was started, and it would seem that there must be a great deal of red tape connected with it. Still when a bunch of able minded men get together, we would think they surely could straighten out the difficulty, in perhaps a couple of years. Cannot the people of Columbiana county make themselves heard at Columbus? I think they could if they start in earnest. Now is the time to boost our proposition while we can; see what it will be when done. Let those who understand it, go ahead, and most of the people in Columbiana county will back them up, no doubt.

Now folks, don't put off seeing the lake as soon as you can, for some day they will let the water out again.

YOUTH ADMITS UNIQUE THEFT

Would Steal Junk, Then Sell It To Firm He Stole From

Pomeroy, O., Jan. 17.—Paul Gibbs, 18, of Mason City, across the Ohio river from here, today admitted a most unique crime to police. The youth confessed a long series of robberies of the Farber Junk company here, and told the police that after each robbery he resold the junk to the company.

In the confession, the youth admitted taking copper, brass, aluminum radiators and other things of value and burying them near his home across the river. The following day, Gibbs would return to the junk company and sell the stolen goods. He said he gained entrance to the building by prying a large foundation stone from its position and crawling through the hole.

When he could endure the robberies no longer, Farber called in Deputy Sheriff Delbert Walker, who arrested Gibbs and obtained the confession from him.

Bold Bandits Break Chicago Crap Game

Chicago, Jan. 17.—Forcing men and women hustlers to scramble under the tables, four bandits early today invaded an alleged crap game in the Knickerbocker hotel and robbed a score of guests of $2,500 in jewelry and $1,000 in cash.

According to police, the bandits broke up a gambling session which was participated in by both men and women.

The robbers ascended to the Floristine room in the hotel elevator, adjusting handkerchief masks, they burst in upon the party with guns drawn.

Several women screamed. The men pleaded, but were alleghed with a curse.

Rescuers Drive To Save 17 Motorists

Phoenix, Ariz., Jan. 17.—A rescue party from Flagstaff, Ariz., expects to reach a contingent of 17 motorists who are reported to have been marooned by the snow four days in a small house 15 miles north of Flagstaff.

J. W. Hildred, of Phoenix, a member of the stranded party sent word of the desperate situation here when he tapped in on a telephone line. Snowdrifts 14 feet high were reported in the region.

DEATH BLAME PLACED UPON GIRL IN CASE

Door Attorney To Claim Widow Fired Shot Which Killed

Chicago, Jan. 17.—In a last desperate effort to save Samuel Howard Kerr, "chick" insurance salesman, from the electric chair for the murder of William J. O'Brien, the defense today in final arguments were prepared to shift the burden of guilt upon Genevieve O'Brien, widow of the slain man and expectant mother, it was revealed in court today.

8:00 Barratt O'Hara, counsel for Kerr, said he would contend in his argument that Mrs. O'Brien fired the fatal shot that killed her husband. He said she was the only person who could have fired the shot.

8:30 The first shot was fired by Mrs. O'Brien and that O'Brien was struck by further bullets in his home when he was struggling with Kerr for possession of the gun.

9:30 In the meantime, Assistant States Attorney Walker Butler was demanding of the jury that it find Kerr guilty of the murder and sentence him to die in the electric chair.

Dorr languished in a chair with a 6.35 mile on his face. Before entering the court he told newspapermen and other witnesses that he felt certain of acquittal.

DEMOCRATS WIN SUGAR VICTORY

Insurgent Proposal For Bounty Seems To Be Defeated

Washington, Jan. 17.—The first round in the senate's sugar tariff war having ended in a Democratic insurgent victory on rates, administration forces today were prepared to reject an insurgent proposal for a federal bounty to American sugar producers.

The coalition won in the rate war by retaining the new tariff bill at the existing $1.75 Cuban basic rate on sugar imports. This was a blow to Republican leaders, who had hoped to secure a $2.20 rate as opposed to the house levy of $2.40 on Cuban imports.

The bounty proposal came from the insurgent camp and it appeared doomed to rejection. It was widely opposed on economic grounds, declaring it contrary to Democratic principles. The insurgents however supported it on the contention it would save American sugar farmers from extinction and give them adequate relief against cheap competition.

The bounty plan, already proposed by Senator Howell (R) of Nebraska, would pay 44-100ths of a cent to American sugar producers on each pound of sugar produced in continental United States. The treasury would be authorized to pay it direct to growers. Howell estimated it would cost the government only $10,000,000 a year.

Call New Venire In Willard Case

London, O., Jan. 17.—A special venire of 19 is to be drawn here today in an attempt to complete the jury in the trial of F. E. Willard, former county treasurer of Madison county, who is charged with embezzling $23,000 of county funds.

The regular January petit jury of 24 and the special venire of 15 were deliberated late yesterday. Ten jurors have been seated.

To Succeed Mayor

New Braunfels, O., Jan. 17.—William Johnson, president of the city council, who is named mayor of this city at the next meeting of the council, it was indicated here today. Johnson will succeed the late Mayor L. N. Sinek, noted for his war on bootleggers in the "Westcott Town in Ohio" who died last Monday.

DANGEROUS Stomach Catarrh

Often Mistaken for Indigestion. Watch These Symptoms.

Thousands of people have Catarrh of the Stomach and don't know it. They treat it as indigestion. Yet coated tongue, bad breath, sour burning stomach, rumbling, bitter eructations and gas are all common symptoms of dangerous Gastric Catarrh.

In this disease, a coating of phlegm covers the mucous membrane lining of the stomach, so that digestive fluids cannot mix with and digest the food. This condition soon breeds deadly disease in the unimpaired, unassimilated food. The blood is polluted and carries the infection throughout the body. Gastric ulcers are apt to form and deadly cancer may develop.

Painful, soda, mints and artificial digestants should never be used in such cases. Instead, right after meals, take a teaspoonful or two of pure Bismarck Magnesia in a glass of hot water. This will wash away the mucus, draw the blood to the stomach, neutralize acidity, prevent sourness, gas and fermentation and permit natural, easy, painless digestion. The whole stomach is cleansed, strengthened and sweetened. Be sure to get genuine Bismarck Magnesia which is especially prepared for this purpose. Any good druggist can supply you, and it is safe, easy and pleasant to use.

Accused Woman On Stand In Defense

Bucyrus, O., Jan. 17.—Mrs. Eleanor Blake, ousted precinct judge of Crestline, who, with her sister, Mrs. Edna Nelson, is on trial here on a charge of ballot tampering, again took the stand in her own defense today.

Mrs. Blake, in the cross-examination by Prosecutor J. D. Sears yesterday, denied every charge that has been made against her by the state. The sisters are alleged to have placed extra marks on 91 ballots which were cast in precinct D at Crestline in the village primaries last August.

The state rested its case yesterday after completing an examination of 98 witnesses.

Kentuckian Must Face Murder Trial

Greenup, Ky., Jan. 17.—John Beverly, 45, of Little White Oak, near here, will go on trial January 23 on a charge of double murder.

Beverly is alleged to have killed Warren Wilburn and D. McGuire on the night of March 11, 1929. The accused man is said to have told authorities that the two men were stealing chickens from his property.

Beverly was indicted with the murder charge after relatives of the slain men appeared before the grand jury, following an examination trial at which he was acquitted.

Refuses To Believe Blonde Bandit Is Guilty, As Painted

Benwood, W. Va., Jan. 17.—Joseph Crawford, 65, father of Irene Schroeder, whose gunsmanship exploits have caused her capture in Phoenix, Ariz., with charges of murder against her, is brokenhearted but still unconvinced that his daughter can be as bad as this is painted.

"I'll not condemn her, even if the world does. She is still my baby and always will be," he said with the tears streaming down his face.

"Why, she was only 12 when her mother died. She has always worked hard to make a decent living. Why do people call her a gunwoman and a killer? I can't believe it, unless I hear it from her own lips. She is tired, worn old man sobbed.

Irene's sister, Mrs. Ray Schroeder, of Belleair, O., ignores stories that the gunwoman's downfall. She said that she had helped rear the girl and could not believe that she is guilty unless she had become addicted to drugs which made her do the things attributed to her.

Judge Quiets Court Outburst By Calling Quiet Period

London, Jan. 17.—There was a period of absolute silence for 15 minutes in the common-pool court room here just before the noon adjournment here on Thursday at the order of Judge W. F. Lusk.

The silent period followed a stormy outburst between attorneys engaged in the trial of a case, the scene, which for a time threatened the peace and dignity of the court being precipitated by Attorney S. E. Davidson of Youngstown.

The Michigan county lawyer charged that Judge W. F. Crawford, conducting the opposite side of the case, had made threatening remarks toward him.

Judge Crawford claimed he was simply emphasizing a statement. Chief Bailiff James Stevenson called for order, but Attorney Davidson informed him that he would be seated only when the court ordered him to do so.

Chief Bailiff called for order, but Judge Crawford refused to be seated, and the court adjourned for the day.

Attorney Davidson, earlier in the day on Thursday, sought to have one of the jurors in the case discharged for alleged misconduct in having listened to opposing counsel read a newspaper account of the case.

Judge Lusk listened to the complaint of the lawyer, and promptly refused the request.

In the trial of the case Judge Crawford represented the young woman, the plaintiff, and Davidson the defendant.

OHIO mother proves her idea is right...

"My little son was bilious and upset," says Mrs. F. L. Wideman, 19809 Shaker Blvd., Cleveland. "He had no appetite, his breath was bad, his tongue was coated, and he didn't want to do anything."

"He seemed to have trouble with his stomach and bowels and I had an idea California Fig Syrup would help him. He brightened up marvelously with the first few doses. At the end of a week, he was a different boy. I have used California Fig Syrup with him every time he has had a cold or upset, and I give it a lot of credit for his wonderful condition."

California Fig Syrup never fails to cleanse the system of biliousness, headachy, feverish or constipated children, quickly and gently. It never grips or sickens. Children love its flavor. A pure vegetable product with the highest endorsement of doctors. It helps Nature give tone and strength to the stomach and bowels.

Social Tangles In Washington Solved

Washington, Jan. 17.—No one of official or diplomatic rank attended the dinner President and Mrs. Hoover gave Vice President Charles Curtis last night, and thus solved a social problem involving the Alice Longworth-Dolly Cannon feud over precedence.

Mrs. Cannon was there in her capacity as official hostess for the half-brother and the rest of the guests, as supplied engineers, architects, educators, one real estate man, a politician and a railroad president.

Last month, Speaker Longworth and his wife will be entertained at the White House at a dinner at which Vice President Curtis and his half sister will not be invited.

Arkansas' Victim Identified

Miss Lena Waugh, also known as Mrs. L. D. Walsh, 35, of Little Rock, Ark., whose bullet-riddled and battered body was found in the woods, remained unidentified for a month following the discovery. William D. Walker, 32, of Wynne, Ark., is said to be en route to Little Rock to be questioned in connection with the murder.

Boys Singing Way Through College

Boston, Jan. 17.—Working their way through the last part of their college course by singing and entertaining, the "Beacon Hill quartet" consisting of five youths from as many different states, has built up a reputation which carries them into many circles. The five boys, who are enrolled at Boston university, are Hal Cunningham of Los Angeles, Cal., a sophomore; Bruce Middleton, of Fredonia, N. Y., senior; Charles Bull, of Claremore, Okla., junior; Gilbert Weston, of Malin, Tex., senior; and Gordon Kenyon, of Watertown. The latter accompanies the first four as pianist. All of the four singers are veterans in their avocation. Cunningham was first tenor of the college quartet at Whittier college in California and spent some time with the Pomona Valley Light Opera association. Middleton, second tenor, has studied with Lee Hasi Barnes, director of the Penn college of music, and with Baroness Katherine E. Von Klenner, Ball, who has traveled widely in the tropics, Japan and this country, is a pupil of Louise Lynn Phinney, former soprano with the Metropolitan Opera company of New York. Weston is not only a vocalist, but played during his four years of college in the university band. He also sang in the Central Western quartet for three years. The Beacon Hill quartet was chosen to give the special music at the 1929 union Thanksgiving service which was held in Symphony hall by the Greater Boston Federation of Churches.

Girls Disappear In Strange Way; Home

Point Pleasant, W. Va., Jan. 17.—Genevieve Shifflet, 13, and Mildred Darsi, 12, who mysteriously disappeared here Sunday night, were home again today, happy, but tired and disheveled after "seeing the world." The girls were found yesterday by the father of Mildred, who had been told the girls were seen in Huntington. The father found the girls in Chesapeake, Ohio, across the Ohio river from Huntington, making slow but painful progress toward home. They said they had been hunting work in Huntington.

Youth's Rheumatism Quickly Routed By Owa-Ton-Na

East Canton Lad's Limbs Swollen Terribly — Could Not Be Moved For Pain

MASTER CARL SMITH
A particularly remarkable case where Owa-Ton-Na has again proved itself master of a pitiful case of rheumatism is that of Master Carl Smith, R. D. No. 2, E. Canton, Ohio, 13-year-old son of Mr.

Carl Smith. Carl was confined to his bed. Pains were so severe in his limbs that he could hardly bear the weight of the bed covers. Imagine the intense suffering day and night of a condition where joints feel as though molten lead had been poured on them. Feet swollen to twice normal size, each movement meant suffering which almost made one cry out. Carl's father said, "Imagine the joy to be experienced when just one bottle was necessary to entirely overcome this condition. It is surprising the way Owa-Ton-Na does its work. It just seems to cleanse the system from top to bottom. Within a short time the swelling started to leave, pain grew less and once again Carl became comfortable and now within just a few short weeks, he is here with me to tell you about the good Owa-Ton-Na has done." So one after another come stories of praise, where Owa-Ton-Na has relieved suffering. Many times this suffering has been going on for years and hope almost lost, yet Owa-Ton-Na accomplishes results even in such cases. Owa-Ton-Na is sold in Salem at Fieding's, Bolger & French and J. H. Lease Drug Stores.—Adv.

Whitehall Buildings Soon To Be Replaced

London, Jan. 17.—Whitehall, Britain's street of state, is shortly to be made "worthy of the Empire." The dull, dirty, grey governmental buildings which have for more than a century cast a gloomy spell over the metropolis are to be demolished, and new palatial buildings will be erected.

Plans for the erection of the great new buildings in Whitehall are in contemplation, and the government will take a decision on the proposal shortly. Designed on palatial lines, the new structures will be calculated to add greatly to the dignity of the famous street of government offices, and although the cost will be great, it is contended that there will in the end be a saving, because all the staffs will be housed together, and not spread over London as they now are. The new buildings will be on the south side of Whitehall, and will extend from the Cenotaph to a point opposite the Horse Guards

Parade. The scheme will involve the demolition of Montague House, the famous old home of the Dukes of Buccleuch, which is now the Ministry of Labor, and of the old houses in Whitehall Gardens.

COLUMBIANA

C. M. Hoover, Dan Miller, William Miller, Dr. R. E. Brunsard, Homer C. Culp, H. W. Hammond and Olaf Todd attended the meeting of the Columbiana County Boy Scout council at Lebanon Monday evening. The meeting was at the Presbyterian church, a banquet being followed by an address by Perry A. Limp, regional scout executive.

Members of the Columbiana Rotary club, with their wives will enjoy a theater party Thursday evening at the Youngstown Hippodrome, viewing a Shakespearean play. Earlier in the evening a dinner will be enjoyed at the Elks club. Members of the Rosemont club were entertained last Friday evening by Mrs. Olaf Todd at her home, North Main st. Two tables of bridge were in play and a two-course luncheon was served. At the next meeting Mr. and Mrs. Todd will entertain both husbands and their husbands.

Mrs. John Hubert has returned from a visit of several days at Scranton, Pa., with her son, Frank, who is recovering rapidly from the effects of his recent accident, resulting in the amputation of his right leg. He will be brought to Columbiana as soon as his condition justifies the move.

Mrs. Jacob Albright, Mrs. Chas. R. Fuhrman and Mrs. Arlene Myers are the hostesses at the monthly business and social meeting of the Wide Awake class of Grace reformed Sunday school being held Thursday night in the church parlor, following the prayer meeting service.

The regular meeting of the Columbiana chapter, O. E. S., was held Tuesday evening in Masonic hall with a good attendance. Following the business and social periods a church was served by the social committee. The Men's Bible class of Grace reformed Sunday school provided the entertainment at the church social held Wednesday evening, which was well attended.

The Standard Bearers of the M. E. church held the monthly business and devotional meeting Monday evening. Mrs. Edgar Miller presenting the topic "A covered-dish dinner" began the evening.

Members of the South Side club were entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. J. Sallins, Duquesne st., with Mrs. Thomas Eichenstein as associate hostess.

The second quarterly tea of the Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Cuyler, S. Elm st.

Newell, W. Va., high school boys and girls will furnish the opposition for Coach Barke's team Friday evening at the Columbiana gym. The girls have been practicing hard to come out of their slump, while the boys need only to keep up their good work of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Barker are leaving this week from the Fredrick property on Union st. to their newly completed home on Middle st.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Garvin and daughter, Dolores, New Brighton, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dietrich and daughter, June, and Leiland Peters of Beaver Falls, Pa., were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Peters and family, E. Friend st.

Mrs. O. B. Haddon is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. John Haddon, Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Harold and daughter, Audrey, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson, Palestine.

Miss Ethel Shonta was spending several days at home with Miss Alice Widenor.

In three games of basketball Wednesday evening at Columbia local teams were victorious. In the Franklin Bonsters easily defeated the Scherer Soda Girls, Canton, 42-23, running away to a 19-7 lead after the first 10 minutes. Dorse was the local star. In the second game the Bonsters defeated the Franklin Girls, 30-18, in a hard game from the Salem Business College Girls, playing boys' rules. The Columbians were defeated by Earl's A. C., 32-27.

WOMAN BANDIT ROBS GROCERY

Police Believe Person Is Same As One Active
Before

Columbus, Jan. 17.—Columbus police today began an intensive search for a lone woman bandit who late yesterday held up and robbed a Kroger grocery store here.

Police believe it was the second recent hold-up for the female bandit. Another Kroger store was held up and robbed here two days ago. Descriptions which were given to police by both store managers, coincide, which led police to believe that the same bobbed-haired bandit "pulled" both jobs.

She forced the manager and the clerk to lie on the floor while she robbed the cash drawer of between $20 and $25. She escaped in a taxicab, the driver of which she threatened with a revolver.

Policeman Answers Call; Act Is Fatal

New York, Jan. 17.—Henry J. Fieger, 46, was literally scared to death by a policeman early today. However, it was not the policeman's fault.

Fieger who had been separated from his wife, Valerie, 36, had followed her into East 78th st. pleading for a reconciliation. He became so fervent in his conversation that who had been listening coldly to his pleas, suddenly called for a policeman.

Someone got Officer Patrick Walsh. When he edged through the crowd and confronted Fieger, the man turned pale, gasped—and fell dead. A physician said death apparently was due to heart disease.

ABOUT TOWN

Attend County Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. William Probert, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Detroit and Mrs. Louis Getz attended a county meeting of Knights of Pythias Thursday evening at Columbiana.

C. E. Oliver, of East Palestine, was the main speaker at the meeting. Music, recitations and a play composed the program. Lunch was served and dancing entertained.

The next county meeting will be at East Palestine on Feb. 11. The district meeting at Warren will be on Feb. 4.

State Grange Officer

Grangers of Columbiana and Mahoning counties will meet at 1:30 p. m. Saturday at Memorial building to hear W. G. Vandenberg, of Zanesville, speak.

Vandenberg is state secretary of the Ohio grange. He will speak in the interest of the National Grange Auto Insurance company.

L. T. L. Meeting

Fifteen members of the Loyal Temperance Legion met Thursday afternoon at the Educational building, East Second st. A short program was enjoyed.

All members are requested to meet at 7 p. m. Sunday in the basement of the Methodist church to attend the union service.

Mr. Burns Ill

Mrs. J. A. Mounts, East Seventh st. has been advised that her father, W. W. Burns, of Culver, Calif., is seriously ill. Mr. Burns, a former Salem resident, is well known in this vicinity.

COURT NEWS

Salem Man Given Divorce

Ernest W. Her of Salem, claimed that his wife, Mary Eva, refused to come to that city from their old home in Lynn, Mass., and take care of a home there for him, and he filed an action against her several weeks ago asking for a divorce for this reason.

Mrs. Her filed an answer to the petition in which she stated that she left her home and came to Salem on two different occasions and that her husband failed to provide a home for her, and she asked that the court in deciding the matter, give her alimony.

On Thursday Judge Lones heard the case and granted the divorce to the husband because of willful absence for more than three years, and the agreement of the husband and wife compromising the claim for alimony was approved.

The Her's were married in Cleveland on October 21st, 1914, and have no children. L. P. Metzger represented Her in court.

Damage Verdict Given

James Young, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Young of East Liverpool, figured in an automobile-street car wreck at the Gilmore crossing south of Lisbon on the Lincoln Highway two years ago when he was three years old, and on Thursday a jury in the common pleas court gave him a damage verdict for $50 damages. The boy, through his father, had filed suit against the Youngstown & Ohio River Railroad Company for $15,000.

Golden Eagle Forced To Limit To Defeat United Cigar Team

WELLSVILLE HIGH TOSSERS OPPOSE SALEM TEAMS HERE TONIGHT

Tobies Flash Surprise Attack But Leaders Win By 22-17 Score

Merchants Continue In Tie for Lead in Class A Loop With Electric Furnace; Cigars Outplay Leaders in First Half, But Lose Out

The Golden Eagle advanced into the final week of the Class A basketball league with a record of five consecutive victories, defeating the United Cigars 22-17 in a sensational tosser battle at the high school gymnasium Thursday night.

The game was without doubt the hardest fought of the season. The Cigars outplaying the league leaders throughout the first half and threatened seriously to nose them out in the final quarter. The result placed the merchants on equal rating with the Electric Furnace for first place in the loop, both teams having won five straight contests.

The Tobies flashed a brilliant brand of basketball in the first half, holding the Golden Eagle's crack offensive aggression to two field goals and held an 8-7 lead at the close of the first 16 minutes of play. They failed to score a point in the third quarter, however, and the merchants forged to the front and held a 13-7 lead when the fourth period started. Older, held to one field goal in the first half, scored twice from action in the third session.

CIGARS STAGE COMEBACK
The Cigars again started a strong scoring attack in the final period and climbed to within one point of a tie game when Jenkins tied the count with a free throw goal. Cape scored to place the Golden Eagle ahead by two points but Fernengel again knocked the count with a basket from the side of the court.

Cape fouled Sartick and was disqualified from the game on four personal fouls, being replaced by Joe Kelley who saw service during the entire first half in a forward position. Sartick missed the free throw and Kelley took the ball from the backboard, dribbled down the court and scored from the center of the floor to make the score 19-17. Jenkins fouled Caplan but Referee Reasback disallowed Caplan the privilege of a free throw when he took too much time. Older was fouled by Sartick and scored the shot and Kelley followed with an under-basket field goal to clinch the decision for the Golden Eagle combine.

KELLEY STAR
Play of Kelley in the last three minutes of the game when he replaced Cape was the big factor in the leaders' triumph. Older led the scoring of the victorious five with three baskets from action and two free throws for eight points. Kelley counted three fielders for six count-ers while Fernengel was the scoring ace for the losers with eight points.

The Grate Motors forfeited to the McArthur Furrows failing to put in their appearance for the Class A preliminary.
The Episcopal church five trimmed the First Methodists 20-12 in the Class B game played. N. Nan's scoring being the outstanding feature of the tilt. Summaries of the games follow:

Cleveland—The average American knows about 60,000 words, or four times as many as Shakespeare, who is credited with having had the world's greatest vocabulary, according to Prof. Miles A. Hanley, of the University of Wisconsin.

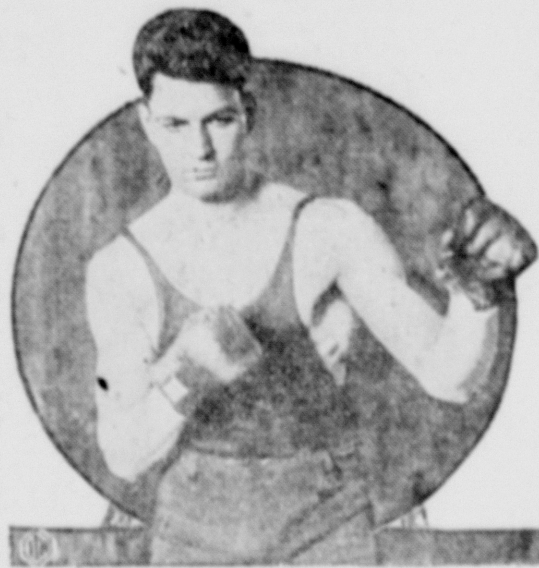

Salem's athletic relationship with Wellsville dates back as far as 1925, when teams of the two schools met in a gridiron battle at Wellsville. Salem won by a 10-5 score and since that time have been victorious on all except four occasions in the 26 football games played. No statistics are available on the basketball records between the two rivals but the Orange and Black hasn't registered a victory over a Salem High team in a boys' game since the 1921-22 season. Doug Wilson's last term of office as Salem High coach.

A game considered important to the entire American basketball realm will be played at Pittsburgh Saturday night. Notre Dame's rejuvenated cage quintet invades the Pitt Panther gymnasium for a duel with Pitt's great five and is considered a chance for a victory.

Since the two schools did not meet on the gridiron last season much importance is attached to this cage engagement. Notre Dame has a team which has met defeat when it played Northwestern and Ohio State but it later avenged these setbacks with victories over the same teams and also trimmed Iowa, Indiana and other Big Nine schools, together with a string of triumphs over western and midwestern schools.

Will Return to Fistic Wars

Jack Delaney, former light heavyweight champion of the world, after a long absence, will soon return to the scene of his former glory. Jack is scheduled to meet Tom Kirby in a match to be held at Providence, R. I.

NEW WATERFORD

The Unity Township Farm Bureau met at the New Waterford school house on Tuesday night with an attendance of 150. A "surprise" program was presented by Elmer Harold, of Leontia, who showed photographs that he had taken in all parts of the United States, including some taken in our own "Pine Hollow" and told the story of each as it was shown on the screen. Mr. Howard, service manager of the County Farm Bureau, talked on fertilizer.

On Friday night the officers, purchasing agents, and committee chairman met with Miss Holmberg and Mr. Wright of Lisbon, and prepare the program for 1936 meetings in Unity township. The group will assemble at the J. C. Bower home.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid met with Mrs. John Koch, Jr. on Wednesday night. Mrs. J. B. Eyster and Mrs. S. L. Young were members of the entertainment committee.

Relatives and friends of Miss Veda Bosker of Pittsburgh, have been informed of her marriage on Dec. 3, to Earl Carrothers, also of Pittsburgh. Mr. Carrothers is a radio salesman and Mrs. Carrothers is a graduate nurse, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bosker of this place.
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rukensbrod of East Palestine, were guests of the Koch-Barrow families on Tuesday evening.

Stonemen To Defend County Title In Tilt With Invading Five

Orange and Black Basketeers Expected To Give Red and Black Tossers Hard Game Tonight; Visitors Hold County Honors

Whether Salem High's rejuvenated varsity quintet will be able to offer a legitimate claim to the Columbiana county championship in basketball competition for another season has been a matter of conjecture for the entire duration of the cage season to date. The matter of continuation of the Red and Black's monopoly of the county laurels has been a subject of discussion here ever since the Stonemen started a losing streak right from the start of their 1929-30 cage schedule and more so than ever now that the team appears to have hit its stride.

Wellsville High's varsity basketeers invaded the Red and Black team's home battlegrounds tonight in the contest which is expected to throw much light so to speak, on this matter in the game which will open the Salem High Columbiana county basketball campaign. As far as the county competition is concerned it is one of the Stonemen's most important games of the season's schedule.

Salem Expects Victory

Salem High holds a long string of county scalp to its credit and expects to eke out another triumph over the Orange and Black's representatives in the clash here tonight. The invaders haven't furnished much opposition for a Red and Black combination for several seasons but anticipates a hard fight with the Stone proteges before tonight's tussle has come to a decision. Throughout the county they figure that it is time for a Salem team to lose to a team within its own county boundaries.

The Stonemen hold the advantage over the visitors in veteran strength. Coach Evans having only two lettermen back from last season's campaign. His whole varsity squad, however, is composed of lads whom he carried along on trips with the regular team last season and it is far from an inexperienced crew and lately is reported to have shown marked indications of improved strength.

Stone's proteges showed great improvement over past performances in their victory over Akron South and fans look for still further improvement tonight. Wellsville furnished only slight opposition last season but those games are past history. The Salem coterie is bound to assert its strength in county opposition once more and anticipates the opportunity for this in the Orange and Black invasion. The result means much to the local team in that East Liverpool registered a decisive triumph over Wellsville last Saturday and the Stonemen, in order to make an impression on county dopesters who annually figure out the "who's who" in the county race, must outdo the Ceramic Citizens.

GIRLS' GAME IMPORTANT

The preliminary is another important battle to the fans of both cities for it involves the county championship Wellsville girls' assertion in a duel with Anne Oelschlaeger's title aspiring sextet. Salem is doped the favorite in that it trimmed East Liverpool's main-ens rather handily while the Patters reversed the decision on the Wellsville crew by a one-sided score. Three games are billed for the Salem gym Saturday night. The New Philadelphia varsity and reserve teams meet the Red and Black's tossers in the two boys' games while the strong Leavittsburg High tosserettes meet the Salem girls in another prelim.

All the county will be watching for the result of tonight's games, however, and all but Salem will be hoping for a double victory for Wellsville. Despite the fact that the county circuit is gradually becoming a thing of the past, rivalry between schools is still present to a great degree and games which involve Salem are watched with more than ordinary interest.

THE DAY In Sports

WELLSVILLE HERE TONIGHT
NOTRE DAME PLAYS PIT

Wellsville High's representatives in the field of basketball competition meet Salem High basketeers at the Salem High gym tonight in two vitally important games to the Red and Black school. The results of both boys' and girls' contests are expected to have much bearing on the Columbiana county championship race in which the Stonemen are conceded to have the odds. The girls' game involves the Salem ladies in their third county game. They defeated East Liverpool and lost to Columbiana but still have a chance for the title.

Salem's athletic relationship with Wellsville dates back as far as 1925, when teams of the two schools met in a gridiron battle at Wellsville. Salem won by a 10-5 score and since that time have been victorious on all except four occasions in the 26 football games played. No statistics are available on the basketball records between the two rivals but the Orange and Black hasn't registered a victory over a Salem High team in a boys' game since the 1921-22 season. Doug Wilson's last term of office as Salem High coach.

A game considered important to the entire American basketball realm will be played at Pittsburgh Saturday night. Notre Dame's rejuvenated cage quintet invades the Pitt Panther gymnasium for a duel with Pitt's great five and is considered a chance for a victory.

Since the two schools did not meet on the gridiron last season much importance is attached to this cage engagement. Notre Dame has a team which has met defeat when it played Northwestern and Ohio State but it later avenged these setbacks with victories over the same teams and also trimmed Iowa, Indiana and other Big Nine schools, together with a string of triumphs over western and midwestern schools.

ROMANCE OF AMERICAN PROGRESS

"FATHER, DEAR FATHER, COME HOME."
(From an old handbill of 1862)

In order to coax into the theatre those whose scruples forbid such entertainment, it was announced that this drama was really "A Production of W. W. Pratt's Great Moral Drawing Room Series of Lessons." As you have no doubt guessed, the play was entitled "Ten Nights in a Bar Room."

Then as now, good sober judgment was essential. In matters of finance, you will find the judgment of the Citizens Savings Bank a valuable asset. Our experience and our many contracts with numerous lines enable us to advise you in a sound, straightforward manner. It is the purpose of this bank to serve, and we shall be pleased to be of service to you whenever you desire it.

Book Review

By Ray Schilling

James Lead to Cities
By Georgina Garry
Georgina Garry chose a most fantastic and alluring title for her book when she selected "James Lead to Cities." It brings all kinds of pictures to your mind but after you start to read, those pictures fade. George Mallory grows from a pathetic little boy to a disappointing man. He marries Bera H. Lawrence, who had always adored him. After he fails her to a little money, they buy a home outside of London where life goes along in a very comfortable pace until Lucia and Ronald Baring take the place next to them. Baring has been crippled in the war and has married the impossible Lucia more for an experiment than anything else. Lucia is lonely and to amuse herself "goes after" George and "gets him." Of course in the end George returns to Bera a much wiser man—but after all the book is just another triangle.

Awake and Rehearse
By Louis Bromfield
Louis Bromfield's books need no introduction. He has established himself with the American public as one of our leading young authors. In this new book "Awake and Rehearse," he gives us 14 short stories each one a complete novel in itself. His characterizations are splendid and he has chosen people and places from every where. There is one of Paris, another of the Middle West, and then you make a rapid change and find yourself reading "A Bavarian Idyll."

THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeannette Young Norton

"And what's this?" the husband who had given his wife carte blanche to decorate their new apartment looked puzzled at the sheets or rough plans she was showing him. "Look, like a cage to me."

"So it is," she smiled brightly. "For a macaw."

"But we haven't got a macaw."

"We're going to have one in our new apartment," she explained. "Mr. Collins has the most marvelous ideas for a living room color scheme—it's going to be a combination living room and sun parlor with tropical plants and, he says, a blue and yellow macaw would be the perfect finishing touch."

It seemed rather childish to him, said he, but all right, if that was what she wanted. But, when they were finally installed in their charming new home, it was this same skeptical husband who found most enjoyment in the live decorative item.

Pets and flowers give life to any room—and it is too bad that there are so few that can be kept in a home. Certainly, a city apartment places limitations on one's taste for pets. It's cruelty to keep big doggy dogs in a city flat—not everyone has the taste or the purse for the toy dog.

Nevertheless, these objections plus the job of caring for a dog weigh little with the small boy or girl who has his or her heart set on something live to play with. Bringing stray cats and dogs home is part of a child's pleasant adventure—and a mother's dread. How can you explain the macaw? Aspects of housing a dog in a city apartment to an extent helpful who promises tremulously with a suspicion of tears to feed and exercise and wash his nose and paws regularly?

It may seem difficult to divert the devotion for a dog to a goldfish but sometimes that's the solution. Birds and fish of several varieties can be kept in any home, no matter how small, with pleasure to the owners and no hardship to the animals. They are cheerful to watch and very easy to care for, requiring a minimum of attention. And although no one has ever celebrated the friendly qualities of goldfish, there is something to be said for their decorative aspects. They give life and color to a room, and there's just enough possibility for response to feeding to give them some interest in the eyes of a small person.

Birds, of course, are on a much higher scale as pets. Canaries, parrots, love birds, are a few that keep happy through confined within four walls. The cheerful trill of a canary is a delight—especially on dull wintry days. Parrots and macaws are unquestionably decorative—and it's a wonder that interior decorators have not included them more frequently in their color schemes. They come in red and blue, yellow and blue, and even pure white—providing a fine range to choose from. Whether their conversation is a cheerful noise or an asset of any kind is a matter of the particular bird and one's prejudices.

Rising in popularity for city flat pets are the tiny turtles. No, the decorators are not using them, but they have some sterling qualities in the opinion of mothers whose youngsters aren't happy without a live toy. Turtles are singularly calm, true, but they also make few demands. Clean water and pebbles in a shallow bowl satisfy most of their needs—and a bit of simple turtle food every few days. A turtle does not grow perceptibly, his desire for exercise is almost minus and he does not seem to care where he lives.

Boston—A petition has been filed for the action of the incoming session of the Massachusetts general court for the erection of a permanent memorial on Gallows Hill in Salem, to symbolize the "sublime spiritual victory" of those who were executed there in early colonial days and also to serve as a present warning "against fanaticism and superstition." It is proposed that the state acquire the property.

AT THE GRAND

"Love Doctor"
The Boomerang as a stage play had a pronounced success. Then it was forgotten for a while. But Richard Dix discovered it three years ago and wanted to do "The Boomerang" into a movie. The fulfillment of this wish came with his assignment to the picture, "The Love Doctor," which is the screen adaptation of the stage play and now showing at the Grand.

The story is that of a young doctor who is wise in the ways of love. He is all marriageable maidens and is madly loved by two of them. Enter a patient with a strange malady known as love. The doctor bundles the patient off to the country with a nurse who loves the doctor. A young society deb is now left with a clear field for the doctor's heart.

The doctor lays down his three rules of love for his patients. First, if you fall in love say so, if you like, but never let the loved one be quite sure you mean it. Second, make yourself scarce. Be as devoted as you like but don't always be on hand. Third, try and make the loved one jealous. Then he promptly visits his patient, feels himself falling for the nurse and leaves to go back to town and forget all about it. But on the way back the canoe tips over and the doctor becomes involved in an affair that keeps him from going back to town.

"STAIRS OF SAND"
At The Grand
Gun-play, bad men, a crooked proprietor of an Arizona frontier dance-hall, a beautiful girl and a powerful lot of tense drama mark the picturization of the Zane Grey story "Stairs of Sand."

Most of the gun-play is furnished by Wallace Berry, Fred Kohler, Guy Oliver and Chester Conklin and the love interest is charmingly provided by Jean Arthur as the heroine and Phillips R. Holmes as the juvenile.

"SATURDAY NIGHT KID"
At The State

"The Saturday Night Kid" came to the State yesterday to the tune of well-deserved rounds of applause. "The Saturday Night Kid," be it known, is Clara Bow herself, the smash-bang, love 'em and leave 'em red-headed "It" girl. This time she is a zippy, ambitious little sales girl in a big department store. She falls for James Hall, handsome floor-walker, but he begins to forget her when he gets a promotion from his boss. In order to make him think her more desirable Clara deliberately establishes a

"I Suffered 18 Years; Konjola Made Me Well!"

Victim of Rheumatism Feared That He Never Could Find The Medicine He Needed

MR. GEORGE W. CUNNINGHAM

Don't merely yearn for health—have it. Put your faith in Konjola, the new and different medicine for ill of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and for rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness. You will not be disappointed. Read the words of Mr. George Cunningham, 28 Prescott street, Toledo, who says: "I suffered eighteen years from rheumatism and then Konjola made me well, even after scores of medicines and treatments tried did not the slightest good. I spent hundreds of dollars for all sorts of treatments. For weeks at a time I was unable to work. My joints were swollen to twice their natural size. In exactly four weeks I was able to return to work, and I am enjoying life like any other healthy man. This is what Konjola did for me, this is why I think Konjola is the greatest medicine in the world."

Konjola is sold in Salem at all J. H. Lease, (Mr. Kaminsky) drug stores, and all the leading druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

"rep" for herself as a Saturday Night Kid, a girl who makes a date with a different "swell guy" every Saturday night.

Her younger sister, Jean Arthur, also a store employee, makes a play for Jimmie. But she gets in a jam by quarreling company funds on the horse races. When the show-down comes, Jean lies and tells her superiors that Clara stole the money.

Miss Bow did a great job of acting in "Ladies of the Mob," "The Wild Party" and "Dangerous Curves"—proof that she requires only a good part to give her talents the great display they deserve. She does an even better job of it in "The Saturday Night Kid." In short, it is a well-rounded play for a well-rounded cast.

Congress to Study Air Mail Condition

Washington, Jan. 17.—Complete revision of the air mail map of the nation will be proposed to congress in the form of bills for the consolidation and extension of air mail lines. Rep. Clyde Kelly (R) of Pennsylvania, father of every air mail bill passed by congress, announced. Twenty-five air mail lines now in operation over 14,368 miles will be involved in the proposed revision, together with proposals for extending new lines into many territories now demanding air mail service.

Well, we see that once more we have "absolute proof" that Bacon wrote the plays of Shakespeare. And it seems strange, too, that such proof should come at this late day.

A SIMPLE STEP TOWARDS HEALTH

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is a Daily Essential and Millions Know Its Effectiveness in Relief of Constipation

Perhaps the one simple thing you are not doing to guarantee permanent health is having sufficient roughage in your food. Absence of this roughage is the direct cause of constipation which results in so many other ills—headaches, listlessness, general depression, indigestion and, sometimes, serious disease.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is roughage. It is positively guaranteed to relieve both temporary and recurring constipation or the purchase price will be refunded. Two table-spoons daily (in serious cases, with each meal) is the proper amount.

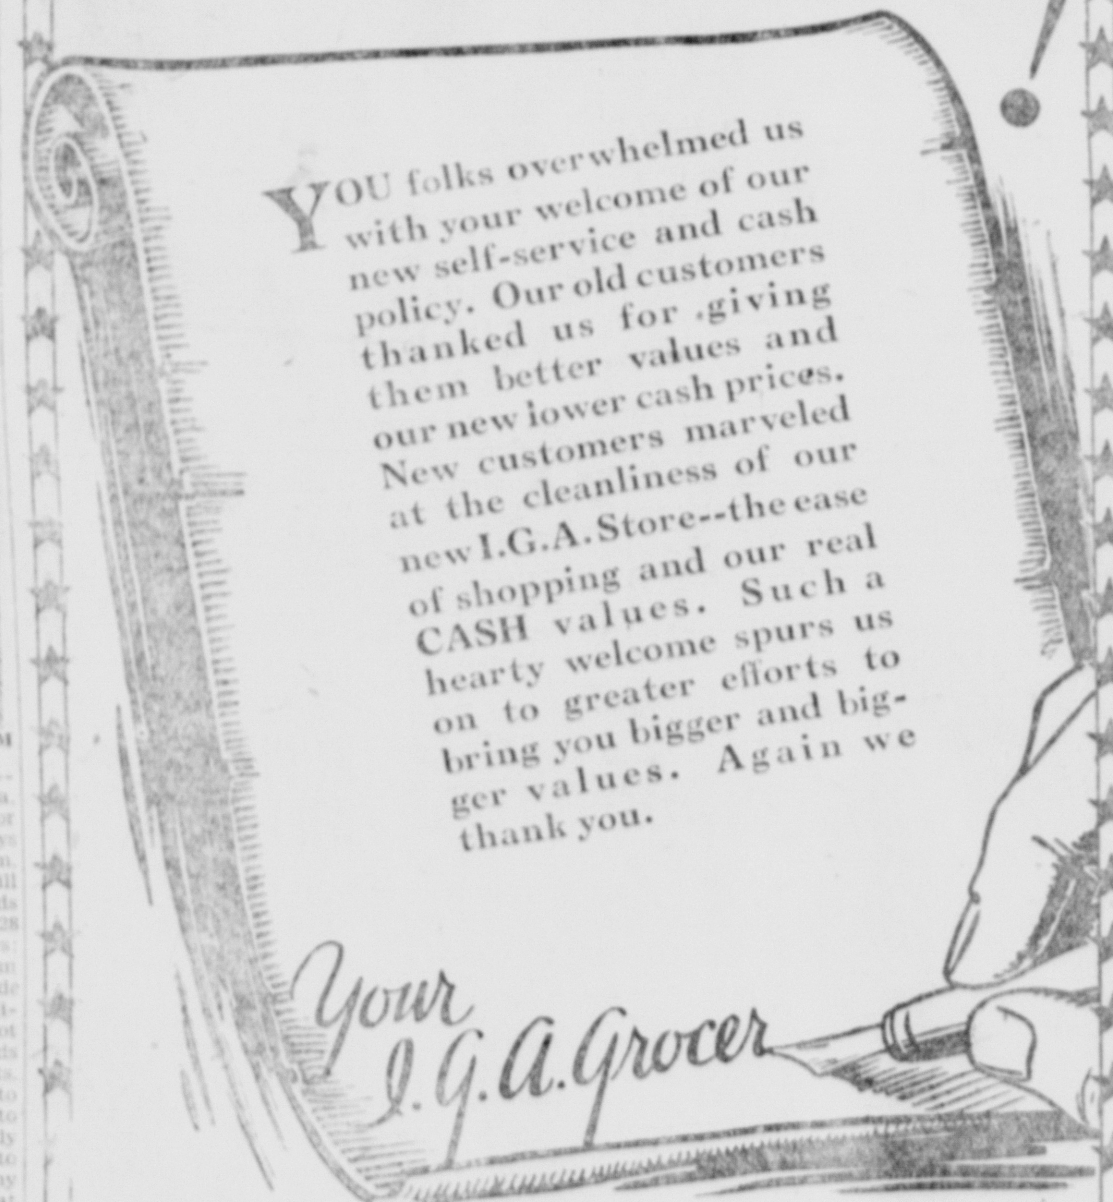

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN also helps you to health in other ways. It is rich in iron, practically all of which goes into the blood, bringing red, healthy color to the complexion. It helps prevent anemia. Be sure to include it in reducing diets.

Many eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN with cream or milk added. It is a delicious addition to cereals, fruits and soups. In cooked foods, such as bran muffins, it is just as effective in the relief of constipation. Recommended by doctors. Ask your grocer for Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in the red-and-green package. Served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
